

CLUVER MARKOTTER INC.: POPIA NOTICE

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. Cluver Markotter Inc processes personal information and other confidential information of individuals and juristic persons to deliver legal services to our clients. The nature of the personal information which we process, depends on the legal service we render in each matter, as well as the legislative requirements to be adhered to by us.
- 1.2. We are obliged to process personal information in accordance with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act, no. 4 of 2013 ('the POPI Act'). This notice constitutes our policy statement to declare our firm's commitment to comply with the POPI Act when processing personal information and special personal information, as defined in paragraphs 8.5 and 8.9 below.
- 1.3. This notice forms part of our agreement with you and is available on our website www.cluvermarkotter.law and, upon request, from our office.

2. PURPOSE OF PROCESSING PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 2.1. We process personal information primarily to deliver legal services to our clients. We also process personal information -
 - 2.1.1. for personalised marketing purposes, if you are a client of our firm or if you elected to receive marketing material from us. Please note that you have a choice not to have their personal information used for marketing purposes.
 - 2.1.2. to send newsletters to our clients and others who have elected to receive newsletters from us. Please note that clients have a choice not to receive newsletters from us.
 - 2.1.3. to conduct client satisfaction research.
 - 2.1.4. for audit and record keeping purposes.
 - 2.1.5. to deal with requests and enquiries about personal information held by us and to update this information, when advised by you.
 - 2.1.6. should you apply for employment at our firm, to process your application.
 - 2.1.7. for the detection and prevention of fraud, crime, money laundering or other malpractices.
 - 2.1.8. in connection with legal proceedings.
 - 2.1.9. in connection with and to comply with legal and regulatory requirements (eg the requirements of the Financial Intelligence Centre Act no. 38 of 2001) or when it is otherwise required by law.
- 2.2. When you contact us by email, other means of electronic communication, telephone, post, or telefax, we collect, store, use and keep record of certain personal information that you disclose to us. This includes details such as your name, address, telefax number, mobile phone number and email communication data. By providing us with your personal information, you authorise us and associated entities or third parties (where applicable) to process such information as set out herein.
- 2.3. We do not intentionally collect or use personal information of children (persons under the age of 18 years), unless with express consent of a parent or guardian, or if the law otherwise allows or requires us to process such personal information.
- 2.4. We do not process special personal Information about you unless -
 - 2.4.1. it is necessary to establish, exercise or defend a right or obligation in law (eg we have to process information relating to your health as part of our screening processes when you access our premises, in order to comply with Covid-19 regulations and protocols).
 - 2.4.2. we have obtained your consent to do so (eg should you apply for employment at our firm, we require your permission to do a criminal record check to process information which relates to your criminal record, if any).
- 2.5. We are committed to process personal information and special personal information -
 - 2.5.1. fairly and lawfully, for specific lawful purposes.
 - 2.5.2. in accordance with any agreement we may have with you and in accordance with the legal standards applicable to such information or information categories.
 - 2.5.3. which is accurate and kept up to date.
 - 2.5.4. which is adequate, relevant and not excessive or misleading.

3. SHARING OR TRANSFER OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 3.1. We undertake to use your personal Information only for the purpose for which the information is essential and not to share or further process your personal information without your consent.
- 3.2. Please note that in certain circumstances,

- 3.2.1. we must share personal information with third parties as part of the legal services we render to our clients. Subject to paragraph 3.2.4 below, we must inform you when we do so and will share only what is needed for those purposes. We aim to have agreements in place with our service providers to ensure that the personal information that we remain responsible for, is safeguarded by our service providers. Anyone to whom we pass on your personal information, will be required by us to treat your information with the same level of protection as we are obliged to do.
 - 3.2.2. we have to obtain personal information about clients and other persons or entities from third parties as part of the legal services which we render. We will inform you when we have to obtain personal information about you from a third party.
 - 3.2.3. we release account and other personal information to third parties when we believe that such release is appropriate to comply with the law; to enforce our client agreements and other agreements; or to protect the rights, property or safety of our firm and our clients. We will inform you when we decide to do so and will share only what is needed for those purposes.
 - 3.2.4. South African legislation allows for the disclosure of personal information to law enforcement or other agencies without your consent. In circumstances where we are required to disclose information because we are legally obliged to do so, we will first consider the legitimate interests of all concerned.
- 3.3. We may need to transfer your personal information to another country for processing or storage of data or when it is otherwise required by virtue of the nature of the legal services rendered to you. This will be done only in limited circumstances and in strict adherence of the requirements of the POPI Act and other relevant legislation.

4. RETENTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 4.1. We will retain your personal information for as long you permit us to do so and/or in accordance with the provisions of any applicable legislation.
- 4.2. Please note that we are obliged in law to retain documents containing personal information for at least seven years from the date of the last entry recorded in each particular book or other document of record or file.

5. SAFEGUARDING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 5.1. We are required to take reasonable measures to adequately protect all the personal information we hold and to avoid unauthorized access and use of such personal information. To comply with this requirement, we maintain reasonable industry-standard physical, electronic and procedural safeguards in respect of the personal information we collect, store, disclose and destruct.
- 5.2. Our written communication with clients and third parties occurs mostly via the internet. For this reason, we have implemented general accepted and up-to-date electronic communication safety measures. However, the internet is not entirely secure and therefore we cannot unconditionally guarantee the security of any information you provide to us via email, social media, or other communication platforms. Should you be particularly concerned about the safety of specific personal information you intend to send to us, you should liaise with your contact person at the firm regarding the appropriate communication platform to be used.
- 5.3. In the unlikely event that an information security breach in respect of your personal information should occur, we will inform you thereof. We will also investigate the security breach and will take all reasonable measures to limit any possible damage which may arise from such breach.
